The queen's rod has been developed to only stage one, and the devil king has not been fully unsealed.
She unsealed the devil king and her punishment's only writing reconsideration?
Even so her actions were too inappropriate We should remove her from candidate list
However according to Yur she was driven by the devil king I believe she was only used

Moreover, the queen's rod is now under June Narcleq's possession.
She is certainly unexpected type But we should observe more.
It's just ...
There is something that is bothering me .....
So you d sagree ?
